MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 15th July 1964

G.S.R. 1067.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All India Services Act 1951. (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following amendments in the All India Services (Provident Fund) Rules, 1955, namely:—

1. These Rules may be called the All India Services (Provident Fund) Second Amendment Rules, 1964.

2. In the All India Services (Provident Fund) Rules, 1955—

(1) In rule 12, for sub-rule (1), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Subject to the conditions specified in rules 13, 14A, 14B, 15 and 16, Government may, at any time after the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, sanction withdrawal by him from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes namely:—

- (a) building or acquiring suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken from any source for this purpose, or reconstructing, or making additions or alterations to, a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber without any withdrawal from the Fund;
- (b) meeting the cost of higher education, including, wherever necessary, the travelling expenses, of any child of the subscriber actually dependent upon him in the following cases, namely:—
 - (i) for education outside India for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the high school stage, and
 - (ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage; provided that the course of study is for not less than three years;
- (c) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's daughters or any other female relation dependent upon him or both;
- (d) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's sons.”

(2) In rule 13, after sub-rule (1), the following provisos shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that the sanctioning authority may sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of the limit set out in clause (a) upto three fourth of the balance at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund having due regard to his status and the amount to his credit in the Fund.

Provided further that in the case of a subscriber who has availed himself of an advance under the scheme of the Ministry of Works and Housing for the grant of advances for house building purposes, or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source, the sum withdrawn under this sub-rule together with the amount of advance taken under the aforesaid scheme or the assistance taken from any other Government source shall not exceed Rs. 75,000/- or five years' pay whichever is less.”

[No. 5/3/64-AIS(II)-A.]

G.S.R. 1068.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section (3) of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), in so far as it applies to the members of the Indian Administrative Service, who, before being such members, were members of the Indian Civil Service, the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following amendments in the Indian Civil Service Provident Fund Rules, namely:—

1. These Rules may be called the Indian Civil Service Provident Fund Second Amendment Rules, 1964.

2. In the Indian Civil Service Provident Fund Rules—

(1) For sub-rule (1) of rule 7-A, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Subject to the conditions specified in rules 7-B, 7-C, 7-C1, 7-C2, 7-D and 7-E, Government may, at any time after the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, sanction withdrawal by him from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely:—

- (a) building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken from any source for this purpose or reconstructing, or making additions or alterations to, a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber without any withdrawal from the Fund;
- (b) meeting the cost of higher education, including, wherever necessary, travelling expenses, of any child of the subscriber actually dependent upon him in the following cases, namely:—
 - (i) for education outside India for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the high school stage, and
 - (ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage; provided that the course of study is for not less than three years.
- (c) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's daughters or any other female relation dependent upon him or both;
- (d) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's sons.”

(2) to sub-rule (1) of rule 7-B, the following provisos shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that the sanctioning authority may sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of the limit set out in clause (a) upto three fourth of the balance at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund having due regard to his status and the amount to his credit in the Fund.

Provided further that in the case of a subscriber who has availed himself of an advance under the scheme of the Ministry of Works and Housing for the grant of advances for house building purposes, or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source, the sum withdrawn under this sub-rule together with the amount of advance taken under the aforesaid scheme or the assistance taken from any other Government source shall not exceed Rs. 75,000/- or five years' pay whichever is less.”

[No. 573/64-AIS(II)-B.]

G.S.R. 1069.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), in so far as it applies to the members of the Indian Administrative Service, who, before being such members, were members of the Indian Civil Service, the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following amendments in the Indian Civil Service (Non-European Members) Provident Fund Rules, 1943, namely:—

1. These Rules may be called the Indian Civil Service (Non-European Members) Provident Fund Second Amendment Rules, 1964.

2. In the Indian Civil Service (Non-European Members) Provident Fund Rules, 1943,—

(1) In rule 6-A, for sub-rule (1), the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Subject to the conditions specified in rules 6-B, 6-C, 6-C1, 6-C2, 6-D and 6-E, Government may, at any time after the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, sanction withdrawal by him from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely:—

(a) building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken from any source for this purpose, or for reconstructing, or making additions or alterations to, a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber without any withdrawal from the Fund.

(b) meeting the cost of higher education, including wherever necessary, travelling expenses, of any child of the subscriber actually dependent upon him in the following cases, namely:—

(i) for education outside India for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the high school stage, and

(ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage; provided that the course of study is for not less than three years;

(c) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's daughters or any other female relation dependent upon him or both;

(d) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's sons.”

(2) to sub-rule (1) of rule 6-B, the following provisos shall be added, namely —

“Provided that the sanctioning authority may sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of the limit set out in clause (a) upto three fourths of the balance at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund having due regard to his status and the amount to his credit in the Fund.

Provided further that a subscriber who has availed himself of an advance under the scheme of the Ministry of Works and Housing for the grant of advances for house building purposes, or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source, the sum withdrawn under this sub-rule together with the amount of advance taken under the aforesaid scheme or the assistance taken from any other Government source shall not exceed Rs. 75,000/- or five years' pay whichever is less.

MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER

New Delhi, the 10th July 1964

G.S.R. 1081.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

PART I—General

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Central Power Engineering (Class II) Service Rules, 1964.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- "appointing authority" has the same meaning as in clause (a) of rule 2 of the Central Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1957;
- "Commission" means the Central Water and Power Commission (Power Wing) and includes all the subordinate offices thereunder;
- "Government" means the Central Government;
- "Schedule" means the Schedule to these rules;
- "Service" means the Central Power Engineering (Class II) Service, constituted under rule 3;
- "Service Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission.

3. Constitution of Service.—(1) There shall be constituted a Service to be known as the Central Power Engineering (Class II) Service consisting of—

- persons deemed to have been appointed to the Service, substantively or in an officiating capacity, from the commencement of these rules under sub-rule (2);
- persons recruited to the Service after such commencement under rule 12.

(2) All persons holding any of the posts specified in the Schedule whose appointments to such posts have been made through or approved by the Service Commission shall be deemed to have been appointed substantively or in an officiating capacity, as the case may be, to the Service from the Commencement of these rules.

4. Strength and composition of Service, scale of pay, etc.—(1) The designations of the posts included in the Service and the strength, scale of pay and classification of such posts shall be as specified in the Schedule.

(2) The Government, in consultation with the Service Commission, may, by order, amend the Schedule from time to time by way of addition of any post thereto or alteration of the strength of any post specified therein and when the Schedule is so amended, any reference to the Schedule shall be construed as a reference to the Schedule so amended.

(3) The pay of officers appointed to the Service shall be fixed in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time.

5. Interchangeability.—The posts specified in the Schedule shall be of one grade and interchangeable with each other.

6. Probation.—(1) Every person appointed to the Service after the commencement of these rules by promotion or by selection shall be on probation for a period of two years:

Provided that the appointing authority may, where necessary, extend the said period of two years for a further period not exceeding one year.

(2) If, during the period of probation, the work or conduct of an officer has, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not been satisfactory, the appointing authority may revert him to the post from which he was promoted or to the post, if any, from which he was selected.

7. Confirmation.—(1) On the successful completion of the period of probation under rule 6 and subject to the availability of permanent vacancies, officers appointed to the Service shall be eligible to be considered, in their turn, for confirmation in the Service.

(2) Till he is confirmed, an officer who holds a lien on a permanent post under the Government will continue to officiate in the Service and an officer who holds no lien on any permanent post under the Government will be governed by the provisions of the Central Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1949.

8. Posting.—Officers appointed to the Service or to posts borne on the cadre of the Service shall be liable to serve in any of the offices of or under the Commission, in India or abroad.

9. Deputation.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 8, officers appointed to the Service or posts borne on the cadre of the Service shall be liable to be sent on deputation or transfer to any other Government Department or to any other Central Service or to a Union territory or on foreign service to a body, whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Government, ordinarily for a period not exceeding three years at a time:

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply to such officers as are appointed to the Service on deputation from any State Government or any Central or State Government Undertaking or any semi-Government department under Part V of these rules.

(2) The period of such deputation, transfer or foreign service may where considered necessary, be extended up to a further period of two years.

(3) The conditions of service of officers during the period they are on deputation, transfer or foreign service from the Commission under this rule shall be governed by such orders as may be issued by the Government from time to time:

Provided that the conditions of service applicable to such officers immediately before the deputation, transfer or foreign service shall not be varied to their disadvantage during the period they are on deputation, transfer or foreign service.

10. Other conditions of service.—The other conditions of service of members of the Service in respect of matters for which no provision is made in these rules shall be the same as are applicable from time to time to officers of other Central Civil Services, Class II.

11. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

PART II—Recruitment

12. Method of recruitment.—(1) Recruitment to the Service shall be made by any of the following methods, namely:—

- (i) by promotion in accordance with Part III of these rules;
- (ii) by selection through the Service Commission in accordance with Part IV of these rules;
- (iii) by deputation or transfer in accordance with Part V of these rules.

(2) The appointing authority shall determine in consultation with the Service Commission the method or methods to be employed for the purpose of filling any vacancies in the Service and the number of candidates to be recruited by each method.

PART III—Recruitment by Promotion

13. Mode of promotion.—(1) Subject to the provisions of rule 12 and this rule, recruitment to the Service by promotion shall be made on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee (Class II) constituted by the Government and where necessary, in consultation with the Service Commission, by selection on the basis of merit with due regard to seniority from amongst persons employed in the Commission in the following grades, namely:—

- (a) Design Assistants (Engineering);
- (b) Research Assistants (Engineering); and
- (c) Supervisors.

(2) No person shall be eligible for promotion under sub-rule (1) unless he has rendered—

- (i) at least three years continuous service in one or more of the grades specified in that sub-rule in the capacity of a graduate engineer; or
- (ii) at least ten years' continuous service in one or more of those grades in the capacity of a diploma holder.

(3) 66-2/3 per cent of the posts shall be filled by promotion of graduate engineers and the remaining 33-1/3 per cent by promotion of diploma holders in the Commission:

Provided that if the required number of suitable eligible officers is not available from a particular category for filling in the vacancies allocated to be filled by promotion from that category under this sub-rule, the appointing authority may fill in all or any of the vacancies by promotion of suitable eligible officers from the other category subject to the condition that the overall proportion of vacancies to be filled from among the officers of either category shall be, as soon as may be maintained in accordance with this sub-rule.

(4) No officer shall have any claim for promotion under this rule as of right.

(5) If suitable officers are not available for promotion to any post under this rule, the post may be filled by selection through the Service Commission under Part IV of these rules or by deputation or transfer under Part V of these rules.

PART IV—Recruitment by Selection through the Service Commission

14. Recruitment by selection.—Subject to the provisions of rule 12, recruitment to the Service may, unless it is made by deputation or transfer under Part V of these rules, be made by advertisement and selection through the Service Commission.

15. Qualifications.—A candidate for appointment to the Service under this Part—

- (1) shall not be more than 35 years of age:

Provided that the said upper age limit may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Government from time to time;

(ii) must have—

- (a) obtained a degree in engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central Legislature or a State legislature or any other educational institution established by an Act of Parliament, in electrical or mechanical subjects according to the requirements of the posts; or
- (b) passed sections A and B of the Associated Member Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India) or any other educational qualifications recognised by that institution as exempting him from passing these sections.

16. Disqualification.—(1) No male candidate who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, has married in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service under this Part unless the Government, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts any such candidate from the operation of this sub-rule.

(2) No female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to the Service under this Part unless the Government, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempts any such candidate from the operation of this sub-rule.

PART V—Recruitment by Deputation or Transfer

17. Deputation and transfer.—(1) Subject to the provisions of rule 12, recruitment to the Service may, unless it is made by selection under Part IV of these rules, be made in consultation with the Service Commission by deputation or transfer of officers from other Central Services or Departments or from State Governments or any Central or State Government Undertakings or semi-Government Departments.

(2) The period of deputation or transfer under this Part shall normally be three to five years.

(3) Officers recruited under this Part shall not be eligible for any substantive appointment to the Service.

PART VI—Departmental Examination

18. Departmental examination.—The members of the Service appointed under Part III or Part IV of these rules shall be required to pass such departmental examination in accounts, law and other similar subjects including a test in Hindi, as may be prescribed by the Government.
